Beginner Program- Pipes

Overview

A dedicated learner program will be aimed at players who have made a start on the practice chanter.

It is expected students will have learnt one or two tunes as a minimum requirement.

Goals

Over the workshop weekend, students can expect:-

- four sessions of dedicated instruction aimed at their level; two Saturday and two Sunday.
- To be guided through 1-2 new tunes plus some exercises to improve technical work.
- To be guided through tried and true practice regimes, and techniques to assist learning music.
- Access to witness other classes by internationally renowned players instructing at the workshop
- Participation in all workshop activities e.g. Saturday night tutor recital (extra cost), Sunday night ceilidh (no admission cost) and Monday complimentary BBQ.

Requirements

A minimum requirement is that students will be familiar with the scale, and have learnt one or two tunes. Totally new beginners are welcome to attend however the class will be aimed at the above level.
